county. He was 85 years old and his death was due to the infirmities of age. He was one of the charter members of the First Presbyterian Church, of Annapolis, and the last surviving one. For many years he taught school in Annapolis and was highly respected by a large number of pupils.

JOHN W. M. DEAN.

[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun]
CAMBRIDGE, MD., Oct. 30.—John W. M. Dean died last night at his home at Cabin Creek, Dorchester county, aged 87 years. He leaves a widow and six children.

A LARGE STANDING ARMY IS NOT ONLY A PECUNIARY BURDEN TO THE PEOPLE AND, IF ACCOMPANIED BY COMPULSORY SERVICE, A CONSTANT SOURCE OF IRRITATION, BUT IT IS EVER A MENACE TO A REPUBLICAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT. THE ARMY
